ceived at the Indian office this afternoon from Salt Lake City, to the effect that the Indians at the Utah Agency are well disposed, and that none of them have left.

Secretary Evans returned to Washington this morning from his visit to New York. Mr. Evans denies with emphasis the stories which are current of bargains between the Kelly faction of the democracy and the Cornell faction of the republicans.

He says that Mr. Cornell and his friends have no understanding of any character with Mr. Kelly. It is barely possible that Mr. Evans has not been taken into the confidence of either one of these gentlemen.

Mr. Evans did not deliver the political speech that he had intended because of the consultation with Mr. Cornell and the members of the republican state committee.

It was thought that Mr. Evans could be of more benefit to the republican cause if he delivered his speech at a later period of the campaign.

The committee of nine, appointed at the last meeting of the Army of the Cumberland to nominate the working committees necessary in perfecting a grand demonstration on the unveiling of the Thomas statue in this city November 20th, met last night at the Arlington.

Their meeting, however, was simply for consultation, and nothing of public interest was consummated. It is proposed to make the unveiling ceremonies of a National character, and invitations will be extended to the Governors of all the States and Territories and to prominent gentlemen throughout the country including ex-Confederate officers and soldiers.

Gen. Benj. Harrison has been selected as orator, and Gen. Garfield will deliver the introductory address.

"There are seventeen miles of railroad upon the tract, embracing six railway stations.

"The result of my project as a land enterprise has been to the interest of the colonists as well as my own. Town lots that I sold for $150 have been resold for from $300 to $1,500, exclusive of improvements. Land that I sold for $25 per acre has much of it been resold for from $200 to $500 per acre. This rule will hold good for miles of the territory, all resulting from the great increase of population and the prosperity of the people."

The following letter from the deputy sheriff of Vineland gives the practical result of the Vineland system of moral co-operation, as it may be called:

"Vineland, December 4, 1873.

DEAR SIR: The post box in the townships amounts to about five cents to each inhabitant per annum, and our special expenses, for police matters, when any body happens to be engaged on an emergency, amount to an average expense of about one-half cent each. In fact it may be said we have little or no crime or breach of the peace; and, though I am no total abstemious man, I ascribe this state of things to the absence of liquor shops, and on this account have always voted against licensing. Before I came here I acted as constable in Massachusetts, and thereupon sheriff and constable of the town for two years, and I know from actual observation, that more happiness is secured to men themselves by their wives and children, and to the community, than can be secured by any other cause in the world, not excepting all the churches to help me out!

Yours, respectfully, J. F. CARR, Deputy Sheriff.

In the journal from which I take this letter, it is stated the poor and police expenses of Perth Amboy, amount in New Jersey, amount in the same year to two dollars per head! The figures need no comment.

They had a dine supper in the neighborhood of Pawtucket, conceived and carried out by the ladies. The conditions of this novel supper were these: For every word spoken by the gentlemen at the supper table a forfeit of 10 cents was imposed; but, on the other hand, no duties are always compensated with rights, and restrictions with privileges, it was agreed that whoever could weather the whole supper, submitting to all queries, surprises and ingenious questions without replying, should be entitled to it gratuitously. Many and frequent were the artifices and subterfuges resorted to by the ladies in attendance to entrap the unguarded, and one after another stout disquiet men went down before the constant volley of artful interrogations. At last all fell out and paid the dime penalty save one individual—a queer chap—whom nobody seemed to know. He attended strictly to business, and passed unheeded these jokes, jibes and challenges. They quizzed him, but all in vain. He wrestled with the turkey and grappled with the goose. He bailed out the cranberry sauce with an unswerving hand, and he ate every as the scriptural vegetarian ate grass; and finally, when he had finished his fifth piece of pie, he whipped out a pocket-square, wiped it with his napkin, and wrote on it in a large and legible hand: "I am deaf and dumb."

NOTICE.—The election of officers of the Model Association will be held at their building, Liberty St., on Monday, Dec. 16th, from 8 to 10 o'clock P. M. Transfer books will be closed on Oct. 15th. J. H. MOORE, Pres. "M. A."
